INFORMATION and SUPPORT MATERIALS PACKET

Orientation Group Leader Positions:

The Office of Campus Activities at McKendree University is seeking returning, full-time students to fill spots to complete our Orientation Group Leader staff for the 2024-25 New Student Orientation program. We are looking for dedicated, energetic and organized students to spearhead the coordination of the program. Selection as an Orientation Group Leader is a unique honor and a rewarding opportunity for personal and professional growth.

New Student Orientation is designed to welcome and acquaint all entering students and their families to McKendree University. The goals of orientation are:

- to introduce entering undergraduate students to the opportunities and responsibilities of academic life at the University;
- to integrate entering students into life at the University by connecting them to other students, faculty and administrators
- to introduce new students to the obligations and ethical standards of living in the community
- to help students maintain their personal health and wellness
- to introduce them to educational programs and opportunities – academic, social and religious
- to familiarize the families of new students with the University experience
- to introduce new students to McKendree University's traditions, standards, and policies

General Requirements:

- Orientation Group Leaders must be enrolled as a full-time undergraduate student and must be at minimum a sophomore student entering Fall 2024.
- Applicants must be in good academic and judicial standing with a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75 throughout employment with the Office of Campus Activities.
- Able to train and work as a participating Orientation Group Leader Saturday, August 17 through Tuesday, August 20.

Benefits:

The New Student Orientation program strives to help student leaders develop their communication, organizational and leadership skills, which help prepare students for life beyond college. Serving as New Student Orientation Group Leader will enrich and reward you with many experiences and skills that will help you in your current collegiate status and prepare you for service in future career endeavors while serving as a productive citizen. The following benefits include:

- $300 stipend (Orientation Group Leader). Assistance beyond Orientation may be eligible for additional compensation.
 - Spring/Summer training/participation
 - FYI session assistance as needed, incoming class communication prior to Orientation, training modules (passing percentile/grade required), August training and New Student Orientation; Other duties as assigned
- (1) Orientation Staff polo shirt, (2) Orientation Staff t-shirts, (1) Into the Streets t-shirt,
- Early move-in to your campus room if living on campus
- Various meals and snacks are available during August Orientation Staff Training and New Student Orientation.
- Leadership experience and job skills (communication, problem solving, public speaking, and teamwork), which look great on a résumé.
- Gain valuable knowledge as you positively influence others and help students succeed at McKendree
- Expand your personal relationships and network with students, faculty and staff

Expectations:

- Participation and completion of virtual and in-person training sessions
- Attend additional events as assigned through employment periods
- Report to shifts promptly for all training, programming, and events
- Exhibit an overall working knowledge and understanding of the University and be able to accurately and effectively express this knowledge and understanding to incoming First Year students and their families.
